The Law firm Russin, Vecchi & Heredia Bonetti is Re-Certified as Meritas member

Santo Domingo, Dominican Republic, – October 27 2014 – Russin, Vecchi & Heredia Bonetti, announced today that it has obtained its recertification as Meritas affiliate in the Dominican Republic. Meritas is one of the principal associations of corporate law firms in the world, with presence in more than 80 jurisdictions. Russin, Vecchi & Heredia Bonetti is a Meritas member since 1994.

Meritas membership is selective and by invitation only, requiring that firms meet and maintain strict quality standards in order to remain members, having to comply every three years with a rigorous evaluation and recertification denominated “Quality Assurance Recertification”.

“We are proud of our firm’s achievements, and look forward to continuing our relationship with Meritas. The Quality Assurance Program is a valuable instrument to consistently monitor and address the quality of our services”, said Georges Santoni Recio, Managing Partner at Russin, Vecchi & Heredia Bonetti.

“Enterprises trust the Meritas alliance of law firms for top-tier quality, convenience, consistency and value. Russin, Vecchi & Heredia Bonetti has demonstrated its commitment to world-class client service, and as such, this year again has successfully earned its recertification in Meritas”, said Tanna Moore, CEO of Meritas.
